

Work Allocation Models Workshop

Monday 17th September 2018

Royal Academy of Engineering, 3 Carlton House Terrace, London, SW1Y 5DG

PROGRAMME

- 12.30 A buffet lunch will be available
- 1.30 Welcome & Introduction to the Athena Forum WAM Report from Liz Whitelegg, Athena Forum Chair
- 1.40 'Small Choices - Big Consequences: Gender and Workload Allocation'. Professor Peter Barrett, Emeritus Professor University of Salford & Honorary Research Fellow University of Oxford
- 2.10 Case studies from AS Gold & Juno Champion Departments:
 - (i) 'Principles, purposes and practice of a WHAM'. Professor Peter Main, Head of Physics, King's College, London
 - (ii) 'The quest to make WAMs acceptable to colleagues and consistent across STEM disciplines'. Professor Brian Fulton, Dean of the Faculty of Sciences, University of York
 - (iii) 'Work to standardise WAM across all our STEM departments'. Professor Polly Arnold, School of Chemistry, University of Edinburgh
- 3.00 'Summary of the Athena Forum WAM Survey Outcomes.' Dr Eugenie Hunsicker, University of Loughborough and Athena Forum
- 3.15 Tea/coffee break (Professor Colin Turner will introduce his opensource software for developing WAMs during the break)
- 3.45 Roundtable discussions on issues & challenges for WAMs in participants' own departments.
- 4.20 Report back and summing up
- 4.30 END